You could attend both these ethics courses and still renew your license. MA Eligibility & LTC Partnership is ClearCert approved and satisfies the subsequent 4 hour refresher course for the "MA Eligibility & the LTC Partnership Program" in Minnesota.

Making Money Too

U.S. monetary policy and budget concerns have a far reaching scope in our economy and even of the economies abroad. With the Federal Reserve at the helm, this course explores a whole range of federal policies and legislation including the history and current status of our tax system; historic financial crises and reform to protect Americans to determine, "Are we making too much money?"

Mortgage Meltdown

The 2008 financial crisis had broad sweeping effects for the typical American and their financial plans. This course looks at how it happened and what is being done to protect your client's financial future.

Ethics: Is it Really Black or White?

Racial tensions have been running high and this course takes a peek some possible biases to ask the age old question, "Is the right solution really black or white?" This course is packed with the fabulous ethics discussions you've come to expect from Bryan Ventures, Inc.

This course meets the ethics requirement in both MN & WI.

Ethical Discovery & Disclosure

Ensuring our clients get the most suitable insurance policy and they understand the coverage terms requires us to treat each customer objectively in the discovery and disclosure process. This course helps agents better understand a variety of variables so they can avoid the common pitfalls in ethical client treatment.

This course meets the ethics requirement in both MN & WI.

Middle Class Gap

There are those that claim the gap between the rich and poor in American has never been wider and the middle class is hurting the most. We'll look at the economic trends to in an effort to help you best advise your clients to meet their long and short term financial objectives.

Every Little Bit Helps

Nearly every client wants to help their kids through college and have a financially enjoyable retirement, but getting there is the challenge. This course explores some simple budget trimming tips and easy saving ideas to help any client reach their long-term savings goals.

MA Eligibility and LTC Partnership Program REQUIRED

The market of LTC Insurance is constantly changing and the Medical Assistance (MA) Partnership initiative is at the forefront. This course offers current information on partnership legislation, but also enhances your education of the senior market. We discuss relevant changes to MA eligibility, LTC product changes and enhancements, ethical and suitability considerations, affordability and tax concerns, AND MORE!
